

Do you still think
that media
consolidation is a good idea? I bet if the owners of Sinclair were airing
a one-sided
anti-Bush ad you
would be taking action.

Sinclair, like other companies, uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. Those airwaves belong to me and other
Americans before
they belong to a
corporation.

I urge you to consider the dangers of such one-sided
force-feeding of the public when licenses
come up for renewal.
